

Men's Behaviour Change Program (MBCP) Facilitators

- Part-time
- Leading family relationship services organisation
- Access to salary packaging
- Based in Wyndham/Hoppers Crossing

About us

Relationship Matters, is a dynamic, values based not-for-profit organisation specialising in relationship, family and individual counselling, mediation and education. For over 70 years we have been committed to making a difference to our clients no matter which sector of our Community they come from. We continue to provide high quality relationship counselling, dispute resolution and relationship education services. Relationship Matters also provide Employee Assistance Programs, training and workplace consulting.

About the role

We have an exciting opportunity for MBCP Facilitators to join our growing Family Violence Intervention team. This role will provide clinical assessment, counselling, group-work and therapeutic support to men participating in Relationship Matters' Men's Behaviour Change Programs. The position works collaboratively in a team based environment to engage and provide services to men using violence.

Responsibilities will include:

- Provide therapeutic counselling and group-work in accordance with program guidelines for the delivery of the MBCP
- Provide direct contact and safety planning for the men participating in the program
- Follow-up on matters pertaining to men participating in the MBCP, including management of risk issues

About you

Must qualify as a Principal Facilitator or Facilitator within the FSV MBCP Minimum Standards, which requires a relevant tertiary undergraduate degree (in social work, psychology, counselling or a related subject).

A Principal Facilitator will hold:

- a graduate diploma or graduate certificate qualification in men's family violence; and
- have 100 hours of experience facilitating men's behaviour change groups.

A Facilitator will hold:

- have completed Victorian Risk Assessment and risk Management Framework training; and
- have observed a minimum of ten group sessions

Essential is your demonstrated experience in education or preventative programs, family violence intervention and group work. You will also have the ability to contribute to the team and to provide exceptional services, and to promote the profile of Relationship Matters in the community.

A professional in your field, you will have a clear understanding of the feminist framework and how male privilege impacts on our current social structures. You are able to work independently, while working within a cohesive, committed and high performing team. Together with your exceptional level of ethical standards and well-developed interpersonal communication skills, you will have the capacity to work to high standards of practice. Previous experience working in a family violence services system would be highly regarded.

To apply

We encourage applications from Indigenous Australians, people with disability, people from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds, and Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Gender Diverse, Intersex, Queer and Questioning (LGBTIQ+) people.

Application details and a position description including key selection criteria are available from www.relationshipmatters.com.au/employment.

Applications should be forwarded to HR – Relationship Matters, Level 4 - 255 Bourke Street, Melbourne 3000 or emailed to hr@relationshipmatters.com.au by Friday 4 June, 2021 For enquiries regarding this position, please contact Guy Penna on 1300 543 396.